Sunflowers Show Donation Option

As sunflowers are the Ukrainian symbol of peace, several artists have asked if this RAL Sunflowers show is a fundraiser and have mentioned that if their work sells while in this show, they would like to donate net proceeds of their artwork to a Ukrainian humanitarian charity.

That is purely up to individual artists to donate their work and not a requirement of this show. Upon request, however, we will post a small note next to the label, both in person at Glenview and on the virtual show, that states the net proceeds of the piece would be donated to a vetted Ukrainian charity. It would be up to the individual artist to make the donation.

If you would like a small note next to your label, please let us know no later than June 20. Net proceeds equal the sales price less any commissions due and less any cost the artist incurred to produce the work.

Again, it is up to the individual artist and not a requirement to be in the show. By participating in the show, your work is offering beauty, artistry and hope for peace.

A list of vetted charities, provided by Dr. Irina Stotland in our March newsletter is listed below, if interested artists would like these names.

List of charities:

Sunflower of Peace - first aid packs distributed to paramedics and doctors at the front lines https://www.sunflowerofpeace.com

United Help Ukraine - medical supplies, survival equipment, humanitarian aid, wounded warrior support
